The Australian Coptic Movement Association Ltd

Country | Culture | Community

The Australian Coptic Movement Association (ACM) is a Human Rights advocacy group. Our primary focus is promoting Human Rights for the Copts in Egypt in response to the ongoing discrimination and persecution Egypt's Copts have witnessed in recent decades. In a post-revolutionary Egypt, now is the time for the Copts to assist in shaping a better future for themselves and Egypt.

The ACM has been involved in organising conferences, rallies, media interviews, raising awareness campaigns, asylum seeker support and a range of other activities to promote Coptic rights abroad and Coptic Identity in Australia.
